APPENDIX.

(A.) REPORT ON DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

We your committee beg leave to make the following report : We find no destitute churches within our bounds. Respectfully submitted,

H. C. KNIGHT, Chairman.

(B.) REPORT ON THE BIBLE.

We, your committee appointed at the last session of your honorable body to bring in a report on the Bible, must acknowledge that we feel at a loss to determine our duty, since there have been so many able reports on this all important and absorbing subject ; but feeling that no excuse that we could offer would release us from the obligation resting upon us, we would respectfully present the following as our report:

The Bible, which is composed of the old and new testament Scriptures, is indeed and in truth the book of books, a book which should be appreciated more highly than any book that is known to the children of men. But why (the question may be asked) should the Bible be given this prominence over all other books ? First, because God, the creator and our benevolent benefactor, from whose bountiful hand we receive all the blessings of life, is its author ; for all Scripture was written by inspiration, and is profitable for doctrine, for instruction in righteousness, and for reproof. They were written by holy men as they were inspired and taught of God. This fact alone of itself, it would seem, is enough to give it preference over all other books. But this is not the only reason why man should appreciate it more than any other book, but from the fact that without the Bible and its sublime truths no man could have any just and adequate idea of the true character of that God who made him and gave him his being in the world. This we know to be true from the condition of man in heathen lands—in lands destitute of the Bible. It is true that man, wherever found on this broad earth, is a worshiping being—he has some faint idea of the existence of a Supreme Being. His nature seems to teach him that there is a God that reigns and rules over all things, and that it is his duty to reverence and to do homage to that Being whom he conceives in his imagination to be the ruler of the universe. The wild Arab that infests the barren and waste deserts of Arabia, the Hindoo, the Hottentot, the red man of the forest, and the African in his native clime under the blaze of a tropical sun—all are found while in their rude and untaught state, destitute of the Bible and Bible truths, paying their vows and their wild devotions to false doctrines. Not only are they worshippers of false gods, but often their devotions are attended with acts of the most horrid cruelty.

When the great apostle to the Gentiles visited Athens, the then chief city of Greece, and the great emporium of Grecian learning, he found its inhabitants given over to superstition and idolatry. That people Paul found to be destitute of the Bible, and hence ignorant of the true God. With all their learning and worldly wisdom they were enveloped in heathenish darkness and in superstition. This has ever been the condition of man in lands destitute of the Bible, while in all Bible lands man is elevated to a standard of moral rectitude unknown in heathen climes. It is to the Bible and to its sublime truths that we are indebted for our superiority over China, Berma and other nations of heathendom.

Then, brethren, since it is a book so valuable, let us scan its pages and imbibe its sacred truths and its pure doctrines.

Respectfully submitted,

A. F. ALLEN, Chairman.

(C.) REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Your committee submit the following:

"Add to your faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance." 2 Pet. 1: 4, 5, 6.

Temperance is one of the cardinal doctrines enjoined upon us by the Bible, and forms one of the brightest links in the shining chain of the Christian character. Without it there can be neither strength, purity, or piety. While we are to avoid intemperance in all things, the use of alcoholic beverages should call loudest for our Christian protest. The touching, tasting and handling of the unclean thing has been the fruitful source of discord and demoralization, not only in social and political, but in the religious world, to wit: it makes annually 100,000 orphans, 100,000 widows, 100,000 maniacs, 10,000 suicides. It involves the United States in $120,000,000 annually, and according to the average of missionary work would save more than 1,000,000 souls, or would build 20,000 churches. There are 8,402 distilleries in the United States, 200,000 liquor shops, 600,000 people in the United States drunk daily. What is the result of all this? It increases tax, crime, hospitals, jails, poor-houses, penitentiaries and hangings, saying nothing of the broken-hearted mothers, wives and children, tears, sighs, groans and mistreatments to the female, who are the fairest of God's creation. But the thing called whisky will destroy reason and make man a maniac and then he will mistreat his companion and children.

Oh! when will all of this cease? Only when the Christians resolve that they will take the Bible for their faith and practice, and vote as they pray, then the devil will flee from our midst. Our judgment is convinced that the devil through human agents brought the accursed thing to life; and we know that it has been a curse to the human race ever since it has been living. And the reason why it is a curse: it takes the staff of life and converts it into that which destroys our bodily powers and carries our souls to an eternal hell. The Bible for it: I Cor. 6 and 10; Matth. 24: 49; Heb. 2: 15, 16; Prov. 20: 11, 23: 31; Eph. 5, 18; I Sam. 25: 36, 37; Prov. 23: 29: 35; Ps. 24: 9: 11; Ps. 28: 1, 3, 7.

These are a few of the Bible references and we desire them studied by all people, and then if they can make, sell, get drunk and drink with the drunken and go to Heaven, they are unbelievers of God's word, and no unbeliever can inherit His kingdom. Now brethren, as we know we have God and the Bible on our side, let us lay all of our powers against the accursed thing and work for prohibition in every way that is reasonable and right. But some cry out my rights and liberties are taken away—they say it is my money and corn and I have a right to do as I please with my own. Let us reason a little—We know we have no right to do as we please with our own when it conflicts with our neighbor. For instance, I say I will take my money and buy me some ammunition and put it into my gun and then I say that I can do as I please with my own, and please to kill my wife and children, and neighbors. Have I this liberty? Yes. Have I the right? No. Then it is not the liberty of the people that we want to take, but to make them do right. To illustrate, I look through a glass and see a poison snake going to bite my child, I take my gun, shoot through the glass and kill the snake. My aim would not be to break the glass, but to kill the snake : so it should not be our aim to take men's liberties, but if it takes them to kill the accursed thing brethren, shoot every time, and be sure to kill ; let the liberties fly like glass for we tell you that the serpent is biting our children on every hand. There is enough spent for alcoholic drink annually to pay an income to every Baptist in the United States $1,442. enough to pay all the orphans that are made by the use of the accursed stuff $1,200 ; enough to pay 60,000 ministers a salary of $1,200. The money wasted for drink in England, Germany and America, would buy all the bread and meat consumed by the three nations. This awful burden compels twice the labor in the world, causes two-thirds of our sickness, and three-fourths of all the crimes. It would take 8,000,000 acres of land to produce the money that is spent for spirituous liquors, and allowing twenty acres to every person, it would take 400,000 to cultivate the land. So we see the waste of money and time with all the other trouble. So for our good, and for the glory of God, let us use every possible means in destroying it from our midst..

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. GARRETT, Ch'n.

(D.) REPORT ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Your Committee on Sabbath Schools beg to report that they have been made to wonder at the little interest taken by the churches of this Association in the grand work of training the minds of the youths in our bounds in Sabbath School. We are made to exclaim with emphasis how wonderful that out of the twenty churches in this Association, that only about six have reported any work done in this direction. Is it not to be regretted that among the 1,190 Baptists in this Association, that only 350 attend Sabbath School. Yet, while we regret to note the little interest which has been taken by our brethren in this great work, we feel thankful to God to see that some of our brethren have been awakened to their duty. We are glad to learn that some churches have large and interesting Sabbath Schools, which have heretofore been lifeless in this respect. Brethren let us take courage and give more of our time and money to this work. We hope, brethren, that you will all take this work into hand and let it be the work of the church, and let us aim at the conversion of the youths, and even the children in our bounds. As to literature, we would recommend kind words ; and we would urge or request the churches to report the work done in this direction, so that a complete report can be furnished Brother Davis, our Statistical Secretary at Montgomery, thereby enabling him to make a report to the next session of the State Convention that will show to the world what the Baptists of Alabama are doing in this grand work.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. PRESTON, Ch'n.

(E.) REPORT ON DANCING.

We, your Committee on Dancing, ask leave to make the following as our report :

We will notice the subject in its infant form. It was introduced in olden times, no doubt, by satan as an amusement, and the people indulged in it, not thinking of its evils. They also trained their children up in the evil until a half century ago. Dancing schools were prominent at that time, but thank God they have been abolished, to a great extent. Since the people of God have seen that it is a growing evil, they have been trying to stop it. We believe it to be an evil and every one has been deceived who becomes a reveler and it becomes a part of their nature ; and dancing becomes their ambition and they are like the drunkard, they grow worse. We notice reveling commences at the sociable and there it gets a deeper hold; from a sociable to the ball room is not far, and from the ball room to the bar room is not a great ways. So when we see brandy and dancing get together it makes a fearful crime. We have seen the revolvers drawn at the ball room, and almost life's blood taken. So dear brethren let us raise our voices together to God in prayer against the evil thereof, and raise our children unspotted of such.

Respectfully submitted,

J. D. JOHNSON, Ch'n

(F.) REPORT ON FAMILY WORSHIP.

We, your Committee on Family Religion, offer the following as our report on the all important subject : Family Religion is exhibited by the worship (if any) of the domestic circle or the family teaching of the family circle. What God has imparted in His revealed will to man and family prayers are the principal characteristics of Family Religion. Men ought always to pray and not faint. The head of the family, from the regulations laid down in the word of God, may intelligently understand what is known as Family Religion. The head of the family should, once a day, (and David prayed three times a day) or oftener, read from this precious Code of Instruction the rich truth therein contained, unfolding the meaning to the family circle, praying with and for them, pressing a fulfillment of the promises by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Brethren, how many of you pray daily in your families ? Around the hearth-stone is often made a bethal spot to the Christian family. Then brethren, let us call our families around the hearth-stone and pray with and for them, and thereby prove our faith by our works, for faith without works is dead.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. CAMPBELL, Ch'n.

J. C. TAYLOR, Ch'n.

Your Committee makes the following report: There has been no queries presented this session.

J. H. ABEL, Ch'n.

(J.) REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

We, your Committee on Foreign Missions, beg leave to report that we feel thankful to Almighty God that the great missionary cause is rapidly spreading. We are glad to learn that Berma has been led from darkness to light by our missionary operations, and to-day they rejoice in the blessed hope of salvation, and we hear them proclaiming the blessed news even to others, and declaring themselves to be able to preach the gospel in their own bounds; and in order that this gospel may be preached more and more and its influence spread wider and wider, they pay $2.06 per head. If the question is asked, how this great change was effected? We answer, by paying our money and sending our missionaries to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, which Paul says is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth. God has seen fit to send His spirit, as he had promised to aid in this work, and they have been thus led to the glorious light and liberty of the gospel of Christ.

Brethren, there are to-day, millions of heathens in different parts of the world who have never heard the name of Jesus. Then how can we cry out against the work of Foreign Missions?

We have 112 missionaries looking to us for help, and we are only called upon for 3½ cents per member. In the year 1885 the Baptists of Alabama increased their donations $1,023.00 for Foreign Missions. Will we not help them? Now, if life and immortality have been brought to light by the gospel, will we not obey that one command "To Go Into All the World and Preach the Gospel to Every Creature?"

We say we believe the Bible, and that it is our only rule of faith and practice. But when we refuse to obey the word of God are we not rebelling against God, and does not our acts contradict our words? He that saith he loveth God and keepeth not his commandments deceiveth himself and maketh God a liar. The commandment is "Go Teach all Nations, etc." How are we to read this command? Some say that God is able to save the heathen without the gospel, but we learn it is through the gospel that men are saved. Some say that the gospel has been preached in every nation.

Well, if preaching the gospel once in every nation would do, then Paul was mistaken and did not understand his duty, for he preached three years in Asia. Paul and the rest of the apostles were missionaries and so was Christ and every true Christian who has been properly instructed.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. PRESTON, Ch'n.

 [The sisters of Mt. Moriah Church raised $2.00 of the mission money sent up by their church, and small as it is, (if given in the right spirit) may be instrumental in saving many souls, and every soul we are instrumental in bringing to Jesus only adds that many stars in our crown.]

RULES OF DECORUM.

1. The Association shall be opened and closed with prayer.
2. A Moderator and Clerk shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.
3. The Moderator shall be deemed a judge of order, and shall have the right to call to order at any time.
4. Any member not satisfied with his decisions on any point of order may appeal to the Association on the same day, but at no other time.
5. But one person shall speak at a time, and he shall rise to his feet; and, on obtaining leave, proceed to speak, not exceeding fifteen minutes at any time, without leave from the Association.
6. The Moderator, when addressed for leave to speak, shall signify the same by naming the person, or otherwise.
7. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, unless he depart from the subject or use words of personal reflection; and every motion made and seconded shall come under the consideration of the Association except it be withdrawn by him that made it.
8. Every case taken up by the Association shall be first decided or withdrawn before another is offered.
9. When anything is taken up by the Association, after allowing time for debate, the Moderator shall take the question by yeas and nays.
10. The Moderator shall pronounce the decision of the body immediately after it is decided.
11. No person shall depart during the services of the Association without leave.
12. The appellation of "Brother" shall be used in our addresses to each other.
13. The names of the members shall be called as often as the Association may direct.
14. No brother shall be allowed to indulge in any practice that has a tendency to interrupt in time of public speech.
15. The Moderator shall be entitled to the same privilege of speech as any other member, provided he appoint some other to his seat while he is speaking, but shall not vote unless the Association is equally divided.
16. Any person breaking this Decorum shall be reproved at the discretion of the Association, but only on the day the breach is made.
17. All cases coming before the Association shall be decided by a majority of the members present, except the reception of churches in our union, which shall be unanimous.
18. The Rules of Decorum shall be read at the opening of each session of this body.

 CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I. The ordained and licensed ministers, together with the lay members who are regularly chosen delegates, and who are in good standing in our union, shall compose this Association. Ministers are not considered as delegates, but are considered as members, and have the same privilege of debate and vote as other members and of performing any other duty assigned them by the body.

II. The members so chosen shall produce letters or other evidence from their respective churches certifying their appointment, together with the state of their churches since their last representation.

III. The members thus chosen and convened shall be called the Boiling Spring Baptist Association.

IV. This Association shall sit as an advisory counsel, and shall have no power to lord it over God's heritage, nor infringe on the internal rights of the churches, but shall have power to withdraw from any church proved to be unsound in faith and practice according to the Scriptures; and any church that fails to represent itself for two associational meetings shall be deemed in disorder. It shall then be the duty of the Association to appoint two or more brethren to visit said church to ascertain the cause of its delinquency, and report the same to the next Association.

V. If one church commits an offense against another, it shall be the duty of the offended to labor with the offender; and if it fails to obtain satisfaction, it shall call the aid of two or more sister churches; and if satisfaction cannot be obtained, the aggrieved church may lay the case before the Association for advice; and if a serious difficulty should arise in an individual church, which, after due labor, it cannot reconcile, it may call to its aid two or more churches of its union; and if the difficulty be not then removed, it shall be the duty of the church to bring the case before the Association, to be acted upon as above prescribed; but the Association shall take cognizance of no case unless a due course of procedure shall have been taken.

VI. Any church desiring admittance into this union shall petition by letter and messengers, and, if found orthodox, shall be received by the Association through the Moderator's giving the messengers the right hand of fellowship.

VII. Each church in our union shall have three delegates until it has fifty members, and then one additional delegate for every twenty-five members after the first fifty.

VIII. Any church has a right to authorize any brother over whom it has jurisdiction to exercise in public, if, in its judgment, it may deem him worthy; but in licensing we recommend the churches to call to their aid experienced members from other churches. In cases of ordination we recommend that two or more ordained ministers be called to aid in the same, and that a report be made at the next Association.

IX. This Association may correspond with any Baptist benevolent institution she may deem expedient, and shall be considered a co-worker with all the missionary enterprises of the day, as far as authorized or required by the Scriptures.

X. This Association shall have power at the convening of each session to elect a Moderator and Clerk, who shall hold office until the next regular election.

XI. Any amendment may be made to this form of Constitution at any time when two-thirds of the Association may deem it expedient.

XII. Any church wishing a letter of dismission shall make application therefor by letter.

ABSTRACT OF PRINCIPLES, WITH PROOF.

1. We believe in one only true and living God—the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, these three in one.—1 Cor. 8.4; Isaiah 44. 6; 45. 5.21; "Thou hast created all things." Rev. 4.11; Gen. 1; Heb. 3.4; Jer. 10.12; Ex. 15. 11; Isa. 6.3.

2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the Word of God and the only true rule of faith and practice.—Proof; 2 Pet. 1.21; Acts 1.16; 3-21; Rom. 3.2; 2 Tim. 3.16; Heb. 1.2; 2 Pet. 3.16.

3. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.—Proof: Rom. 5.12; 14.19; Gen. 3. 6-24; Ps. 51.5.

4. We believe in man's inability to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by nature, by his own free will and holiness.—Proof: Eph. 2. 1-3; Isa. 53.6; Gal. 3. 10-22; Rom. 3.19.

5. We believe in the doctrine of election through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truths.—John 3 16, Eph. 2 4-10; 1 John 4.10; Phil. 2. 6-7; Heb. 2. 15-16.

6. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the merits of Jesus Christ.—Proof: Tit. 3.7; Phil. 3.9; Rom. 5. 1-5-9; Gal. 2. 16-19.

7. We believe that the saints shall persevere in grace, and not finally fall away.—Proof: Matt, 10.22; John 10. 28-29; 4. 14-17; 2.7.

8. We believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the only proper subjects, and conscientiously do believe that the true mode of baptism is immersion.—Proof: Matt. 28.20; Acts 2.42; Mark 1. 4-9.

9. We believe in the resurrection of the dead and general judgment.—Proof: Acts 24.15; Luke 14.14; John 5.28; Matt 13.49; 24.31; 25.32.

10. We believe that the joys of the righteous and the punishment of the wicked will be eternal.—Proof: Matt. 25.26; Ps. 9.17; Dan. 12.2.

11. We believe that no minister has a right to the administration of the ordinances, only such as has been called of God, and regularly baptized and approved by the church, and come under the imposition of hands by a presbytery.

12. We believe that none but believers have a right to the ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.
